PRIVACY POLICY

Vaughan Chamber of Commerce is committed to protecting the privacy of the personal information that is shared with us by employees, members, volunteers, donors and others who may be involved in our activities or on our website. Vaughan Chamber of Commerce personnel are authorized to access personal information based only on their need to deal with the information for the reason(s) for which it was obtained. We value the trust of those who deal with us, and we strive to maintain the accuracy, confidentiality and security of their personal information.

Personal information is any information that can be used to distinguish, identify or contact a specific individual. This information can include an individual's opinions or beliefs, as well as facts about or related to the individual. Business contact information and other information that may be available to the public (e.g. names, addresses and telephone numbers as published in telephone directories) are not considered personal information.

All business information provided on this membership application will be used by the Vaughan Chamber of Commerce as part of the online business directory. This directory consists of all active members of the Vaughan Chamber of Commerce and contains business information up to and including: company name, address, telephone number, fax number, company email address, company website, business description, and company logo.

We take all necessary precautions to ensure that personal information is safeguarded and used only for the purpose(s) for which it was provided, whether it is stored in electronic or paper format. In all cases, information is protected from unauthorized access and kept only as long as is reasonably required. For example, our electronic files are password protected and accessible only by authorized employees on a need-to-know basis.

We do not sell or rent the personal information that we hold to other mailing lists or partial mailing lists. We will obtain your consent before using or disclosing your personal information for any purpose, except where the law provides an exemption. In certain circumstances we may be required to provide personal information for legal or regulatory purposes, for example, in the Annual Registered Charity Information Return for Canada Revenue Agency, and the Annual Information Return for the Government of Ontario. In exceptional circumstances, we may also be required to share information with law enforcement agencies, in emergencies, where required by court order or search warrant, or to report suspected child abuse as required by legislation in all provinces and territories in Canada.

The Vaughan Chamber of Commerce's website contains links to other websites. Vaughan Chamber of Commerce is not responsible for the content of these websites or their privacy policies. When you follow a link to another site, even the sites of government agencies and institutions and local governments, and when you provide information to an application operated by another agency or local government, this policy will not apply. You should check the privacy policy of each governmental body if you have concerns about how they handle personally identifiable information.

I have read and acknowledge the Vaughan Chamber of Commerce privacy policy.
